Mrs. J. O. Richardson and daughter Dorothy went to Kirksville Saturday with Mr. Davis. Miss Ida Lou Richardson is in school there and almost too busy to come home, so we know she was more than pleased to have a visit from her mother and sister.

A big feature of Home Coming day at the Chillicothe Business College last Friday was a monster parade which stretched out for almost a mile and had over 600 students in line, the different state clubs vying with each other in originality of stunts and size of delegation.

Mrs. Clem Jeter, president of the Parent-Teachers' association and a number of our school faculty are in Kansas City attending the State Teachers' Association which is the big educational meeting of the year, and lasts through Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

A duck supper was much enjoyed last Wednesday night at the J. W. Taylor shop, by Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Misses Lucy Long Taylor and Mattie Mae Arensmeier, Fred Arensmeier, Mrs. C. O. Sterner and daughter Mary Jane and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ball. Mr. Ball shot the ducks and of course, the ladies cooked them with all the other good things that make up a supper, anyway they all report a big feed.

E. V. Lamb, pastor of the 1st Baptist church of Moberly, will be here Friday night, November 24, to speak at the Baptist church. He will talk about the World Baptist program as related to the reinforcement campaign put on by the Baptists of the south land. Baptists of Keytesville as well as the surrounding country and cities are cordially invited to be present.

The party given at the home of Mrs. Frank White last Friday afternoon and night by the ladies of the Christian church was a decided success. The house was beautifully decorated, and in the afternoon a number of games were enjoyed by the guests and in the evening 42 was indulged in. The luncheon was a work of art, but the ladies of this church are renowned for their fine cooking, and during the afternoon and evening about 150 people enjoyed eating of the good things provided.

It is strange a newspaper man should be compelled to solicit advertising or offer argument for its use, remarks a man who knows what he is talking about. Funny isn't it, that a man who thinks he is a business man, will get up in the morning from an advertised mattress, shave with an advertised razor, take off advertised pajamas, and put on advertised underwear, advertised hose and shirt, tie, advertised suit, sit himself at a table, and eat advertised breakfast food, drink advertised coffee or substitute, put on an advertised hat, light an advertised cigar, go to his place of where he turns down the advertising solicitor or salesman for his home newspaper on the grounds that advertising does not pay.—Clark Chronicle.

John Berry visited in Kirksville Saturday and Sunday.

Little Lavern Beltz spent part of last week with her grand mother, Mrs. W. H. Latham.

Saturday, Tommie Hubbard came home from Chillicothe for a short visit with home folks.

Sam Dinsmore, Pow Agee Hurt and Vernon Thrash attended the foot ball game at Kirksville last week.

Mrs. Jno. D. Taylor left Sunday for Birmingham, Ala., to attend, as a delegate from here, a convention of the U. C. D. She expects to return the first of the week.

Mrs. T. H. Binford returned from Kansas City last week where she has been making her home the past few months, to spend the winter here in the home of Miss Kate Dewey.

Word has come that O. P. Ray and family who have been in Greeley, Colorado, since leaving here have gone to Canyon City, Colo., hoping the climate there will benefit Miss Margaret.

The Home Makers club met Tuesday with Mrs. Joe Lewis with more than twenty members present. The afternoon was spent in music, readings and helpful exchange of plans and opinions. Before adjourning light refreshments were served.

Mrs. Dempsey Anderson entertained ten of the ladies of the Bridge club and two guests Thursday of last week. Mrs. B. Hughes was given the club prize and Mrs. John Alspaugh the guest prize. As usual refreshments were served which were much enjoyed by the guests.

Mrs. J. F. Welch, Joseph Hooper, G. W. Hawkins, Ada Dunn Eva Allega and E. M. Fiddler were here from Salisbury Friday to attend the Christian church party given at the home of Mrs. Frank White. Mrs. Eva Allega remained for a visit with her daughter Mrs. Chas. Hayes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bunton started Tuesday for Los Angeles, California. It is remembered that their son, Harry has been out there some time and their daughter, Miss Margaret left here before school began this fall to attend school at that place. This will be quite a family reunion.

G. E. Barham, pastor of the Baptist church started a revival meeting last Sunday night and it will continue indefinitely. Mr. Barham has been in Keytesville some months and is well liked and those who have heard him preach feel helped and strengthened in their efforts to be Christians. This is the time of the year when the churches feel that people have the time to get together and spend more time and thought in church activities. Let all go and help this pastor start a campaign that will wake up Keytesville.

The duck hunters are having rather good luck. Mr. Mackie reports that Tuesday morning when he arose from his camp bed with a great ambition to bring home plenty of ducks for his family and neighbors, he found that the trickiest

Bran Muffin Recipe By Washington Chef

Anthony Giacofci

Housewives may now regale their guests with the same kind of bran muffins Marshal Foch and many other noted visitors at Washington have talked about. The opportunity is presented through Anthony Giacofci, chef of the New Willard Hotel, one of the big hostilities of the National Capital. Here is the recipe which Chef Giacofci says will make one dozen muffins:

Four tablespoonfuls flour, four tablespoonfuls bran, one tablespoonful lard, one tablespoonful butter, one tablespoonful baking powder, one tablespoonful sugar, two eggs, one-fourth pint cold milk, a pinch of salt.

Mix the above thoroughly, flour with baking powder, add lard and butter, mix and add bran, eggs and milk, bake in hot oven twenty minutes.

Missouri had risen over three feet during the night and the blinds were almost under water. The decoy ducks were roosting on top of the blinds, and when he tried coaxing them in they gaily sailed down the river. He gave chase and about every half mile found other duck hunters in the same sad plight. Mr. Mackie continued on his way smiling to himself, and was fortunate enough to locate his run away ducks on a sand bar. One crowd of hunters lost about thirty-five decoy ducks.

ORTON INTRODUCING NEW CROP

F. S. Orton, northeast of Paris, grew a crop of Hygerian wheat this year and is selling the seed to neighbors who were impressed with its merits. Mr. Orton threshed 110 bushels from 4½ acres. He thinks it is worth $2 a bushel. Although called wheat, it really is a species of Kafir corn, the difference being in the color of the grain and in more foliage and a more palatable stalk than Kafir. It resists drought and matures early, two very important things for the farmer who wants early feed. Mr. Orton used a corn planter in putting his crop in. His brother Harry double rowed a field and cut the crop with a binder. Only a small amount of seed is needed for an acre of ground.—Paris Appeal.

CHICKEN HAWK GETS ON 13,000 VOLTS WIRE

A large chicken hawk, so big he looked like an eagle, was badly injured by getting too close to a 13,000 volt electric wire this morning.

A. W. Oquest of the Moberly Light and Power Co., found the bird. Oquest was driving to Higbee inspecting the Moberly Light and Power Co.'s lines to that city; when he noticed the huge bird starting to perch near the high voltage wire. The bird dropped to the ground and was thought to be dead. One wing was severely injured. Oquest threw the bird in the back of his car and drove on.

By the time he drove two miles farther, the bird showed signs of life and Oquest tied him in the car. He brought the hawk back to Moberly and it was still alive.—Moberly Democrat.

SOUR MILK AS EGG-MAKER

Sour milk, so long unpopular with the average youngster, although always popular with the pig, is due to a rise in great favor to Ma Hen when the poultry population hear of and understand the results of a recent investigation at the Missouri State Agricultural Experiment Station, showing that the best egg records of this particular test are from hens to which sour milk was fed as a supplement to their regular ration of equal parts of bran, shorts and corn meal fed in a self feeder besides a limited amount of grain as scratch feed.

The Missouri State Experiment Station's poultry department says that "sour milk is the best egg-maker; and that if sour milk cannot be had, tankage does nearly as well."
